Elon Musk has made speech free again over on X (which is still located at Twitter.com for some reason). He's totally based and red-pilled, and has got the "globalists" shaking in their boots. Yeah, that's the ticket.

Elon is now working with AU10TIX to add an ID verification system to X. AU10TIX is based out of Israel, so we'll all be in good hands!

Obviously this company is connected to Israeli intelligence. I would not be surprised if most of their engineers come from Unit 8200, but I have not yet had time to dig into that information.

StopCommonPass on X writes:

AU10TIX is a subsidiary of ICTS International, est. 1982 by former members of 'Shin Bet' (Israel's equivalent of MI5) & former security of El Al airlines. One of the other subsidiaries is 'Huntleigh USA' who were responsible for screening/safety at Boston/Newark during 9/11.

This is all going according to plan. This push ID/biometric verification for using the internet is a big part of the WEF (kosher) plan us.

X would not be the first big company to work with this Israeli biometric verification company. According to their website, "Today, brands like Google, PayPal and Uber trust AU10TIX because... well, ask them."

You can really rest easy knowing Israelis are looking out for your safety and security. What could possibly go wrong!?
